PREFACE.

THE uſual Reaſon, which Men aſſign for their not coming ſo often to the Holy Sacrament as they would do, is their Fear of Eating and Drinking unworthily, and conſequently, of incurring their own Damnation thereby. The Deſign then of this ſhort Diſcourſe is, to ſhew what that Sacramental Preparation is, which is abſolutely neceſſary to qualify Men for a worthy Participation of the Lord's Supper, that ſo Men may come without the leaſt Fear of Eating and Drinking Damnation to themſelves: For which Purpoſe, I conceive no Rule, no Inſtruction more ſafe, eaſy and inſtructive, than that of our Church Catechiſm, which I have endeavoured to explain and accommodate for the Uſe and Benefit of the meaneſt Capacity.

The concluding Part of this Diſcourſe contains Prayers and Meditations preparative to a Sacramental Preparation, and though they be few in Number, yet I hope they fully anſwer all thoſe ſeveral Parts of a Communicant's Duty, according to that Rule and Standard, which our Church has fixed for our Guide and Companion to the Holy Altar. By the Addition of thoſe Pſalms, and proper Leſſons annexed to each particular Prayer and Meditation, the Communicant may enlarge his Devotion to what Degree or Length he pleaſeth: thro' which Method you have as much Matter for actual Preparation in this little Book, as in any other Diſcourſe of this Nature whatſoever.

COMPANION

ALTAR.

ALL thoſe Bleſſings which we now enjoy, and hope hereafter to receive from Almighty God, are purchaſed for us, and muſt be obtained through the Merits and Interceſſion of the Holy JESUS, who has inſtituted and ordained Holy Myſteries, as Pledges of his Love, and for a continual Remembrance of his Death and Paſſion, to our great and endleſs Comfort, Luke xxii. 19. 1 Cor. xi. 24. But then we muſt remember, that theſe Benefits and Bleſſings (which the Son of God has purchaſed for us) are no where promiſed, but upon Condition that we ourſelves are firſt duly qualified for them. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is a ſolemn Ratification of our Baptiſmal Covenant, wherein God for his part hath faithfully promiſed Pardon and Remiſſion of Sins to all true Peniten's, and we for our Parts are therein ſolemnly bound to be faithful and obedi- ent unto him, 2 Tim. ii. 19. Before then we can promiſe to ourſelves any Benefit or Advantage from the Participation of this ſolemn Rite and Covenant between God and us, we muſt endeavour (what in us lies) to poſſeſs our Souls with all thoſe divine Qualifications, which this Sacrament of the Lord's Supper requires, to render us worthy Partakers thereof.

And what thoſe are is the Deſign of this Diſcourſe; wherein I ſhall endeavour to ſhew what that Preparation of Heart and Mind is, which muſt diſpoſe us for a worthy Participation of the Bleſſed Sacrament: And herein I hope to remove all thoſe Fears and Scruples which ariſe in our Mind, about eating and drinking unworthily, and of incurring our own Damnation thereby, as groundleſs and unwarrantable; and to do this I ſhall take Occaſion to explain that Part of our CHURCH CATECHISM, deſignedly intended for our Inſtruction, with relation to this Duty of a Sacramental Preparation, viz.

Q. What is required of them who come to the Lord's Supper?

A. To examine themſelves whether they repent them truly of their former Sins: ſtedfaſtly purpoſing to lead a new Life, have a lively Faith in God's Mercy through Chriſt, with a thankful Remembrance of his Death, and to be in Charity with all Men. This is that Sacramental Preparation which our Church (in as few Words as is poſſible) hath provided for our Companion or Guide to the Holy Altar: The Duty then of a devout Communicant conſiſteth in theſe ſix following Particulars:

Particulars: 1. Self-Examination, to examine themſelves. 2. Repentance towards God, whether they repent them truly of their former Sins. 3 Holy Purpoſes or Reſolutions of a new Life, ſtedfaſtly purpoſing to lead a new Life. 4. Faith in God's Mercy through Chriſt, to have a lively Faith, &c. 5. A Thankful Remembrance of his Death. 6*th*, and laſtly, Unfeigned Love or Charity for all Mankind, and to be in Charity with all Men.

The firſt Part then of a Communicant's Duty is Self-Examination: A Duty not only enjoined by human Authority, but likewiſe commanded by St. Paul. But let a Man examine himſelf, and ſo let him eat of that Bread, and drink of that Cup, 1 Cor. xi. 28. Intimating, that no Man ſhould preſume to eat of that Bread, and drink of that Cup, without a previous Preparation, if he meant to eſcape that ſame Judgment or Condemnation which theſe Corinthians brought upon themelves for their irreverent, ſinful and diſorderly Behaviour at this Sacrament; and this was the Occaſion of St. Paul's Caution and Reproof: He that eateth and drinketh unworthily (ſays the Apoſtle) eateth and drinketh * Damnation to himſelf, not diſcerning the Lord's Body, Verſe 29.

* Note, This Word Damnation does not ſignify Eternal Condemnation, but, on the contrary, ſome temporal Puniſhment or Judgment (as you have it in the Margin of your Bible) ſuch as Sickneſs or Death, with which this City of Corinth was afflicted, for their great Abuſe and Profanation of this ſolemn Inſtitution; ſo that the Sins here reproved, (viz. Gluttony, Drunkenneſs, and Faction, ver. 21, 22.) and the Damnation here threatened, hath no relation to us, unleſs it could be proved that any of us were ever guilty of the ſame Wickedneſs with theſe Corinthians; which I believe no Man ever was, or would be ſuffered to approach the Lord's Table after ſuch a diſorderly Manner, as they did, if Men were ſo lewd and prophane.

But that our Preparation may be ſo well performed by us as to prevent the like Danger, let us (as the wiſe Man adviſeth) Remember the End, and we ſhall never do amiſs. Eccl. vii. 36. Firſt, then, that we may come to this Heavenly Feaſt holy, and adorned with the Wedding-Garment, Mat. xxii. 11. We muſt ſearch our Hearts, and examine our Conſciences, not only till we ſee our Sins, but until we hate them; and inſtead of thoſe filthy Rags of our Righteouſneſs, we muſt adorn our Minds with pure and pious Diſpoſitions; even that clean Linen, and Righteouſneſs of the Saints. Rev. xix. 11. With theſe Ornaments are holy Souls fitted for the Society of that Celeſtial Company, which are to be met with at this Solemnity. Secondly, Another End or Deſign of this ſtrict Preparation is, that we may be accepted of by God as worthy Communicants; that he who knoweth the Secrets of all our Hearts, neither is there any Creature that is not manifeſt in his Sight, but all things are naked and opened unto the Eyes of him with whom we have

have to do, Jer. xvii. 10. Heb. iv. 13. may approve of the Sincerity of our Repentance; and the King who comes in to view the Gueſts, Mat. xxii. 11. may (though ſtrictly ſpeaking we are not ſo) count us worthy of his Favour and Countenance. And how to obtain ſo great a Bleſſing, theſe following Inſtructions will help and aſſiſt us.

Repentance.

Firſt, We are directed to repent us truly of all our former Sins. This is that Preparation which Chriſt himſelf requires of us. Mat. iii. 2, 3. A Duty, you know, which our ſinful Lives makes always neceſſary for our Conſideration, if ever we expect eternal Happineſs hereafter. Luke xiii. 2, 3. But more eſpecially the Dignity of the Sacrament requires that it ſhould be enquired into with more than ordinary Care and Circumſpection; becauſe, without ſincere Repentance, we cannot expect any Benefit or Advantage from the Death and Paſſion of Chriſt, which in this Sacrament we commemorate, and have the Merits of it conveyed to us by this Sacred Memorial. Suppoſing then that this is ſufficient to convince you of the Neceſſity and Importance of this Duty, that upon it depends our Welcome or Rejection, to or from this Heavenly Feaſt, unto which you are called: I proceed now in the ſecond Place, to inform you, That if our Repentance or Return to God, be real and ſincere, it will produce theſe following good Effects in us.

The Nature of a true Repentance.

First, A Senſe, a Sorrow, and Confeſſion of all our former Sins. Secondly, A ſtedfaſt Purpoſe or Reſolution to lead a new Life. Theſe are the genuine Fruits of a true Repentance, and muſt always accompany our Return to God, if we hope to have it effectual to our Salvation. And,

The Ten Commandments.

Firſt, we muſt labour to gain a Senſe or Sight of all our former Sins and Wickedneſs. This will readily preſent itſelf to us by comparing our Lives and Actions by the Rule or Standard of God's * Word, which we muſt make the Meaſure of our Examination†. St. Paul ſhews us, Rom. iii. 20. That by the Law is the Knowledge of Sin; and our own Experience will convince us, that there is no way more likely to diſcover our Iniquities, and to humble ourſelves for them, than a ſerious Application of God's Word to our crooked Paths; and this Duty of Self-Examination is never more properly applied to, than when we intend to receive the Holy Communion: For unleſs we ſee their Number, and apprehend the Heinouſneſs of our Offences, and fear the Vengeance due unto us for them, we are altogether gether unfit for the Commemoration of his Death, who died for our Sins, and roſe again for our Juſtification. It's the Senſe and Sight of Sin, that muſt ſhew us the Need and Neceſſity of a glorious Redeemer, and what Obligations we are under to bleſs and praiſe God for our Salvation by his Son JESUS CHRIST. Of ſuch great Uſe and Advantage is this Duty of Self-Examination, at all Times, that Pythagoras, in thoſe Golden Verſes which go under his Name, particularly recommends the ſame to his Scholars. Every Night before they ſlept, he enjoins them to examine themſelves what Good they had done, and wherein they had tranſgreſſed. Run over theſe Things, (ſaith he) and if you have done Evil, be troubled; if Good, rejoice. This Courſe, if daily followed, as is ſuggeſted by Hierocles, his excellent Commentator, perfects the Divine Image in thoſe that uſe it. Plutarch, Epictetus, Seneca, and the Emperor Marcus Antoninus, agree in recommending the ſame Practice by their own Examples; but eſpecially Holy David, I thought on my Ways, and turned my Feet unto thy Teſtimonies, Pſal. cxix. 59. And this Method, no doubt, is an admirable Means to improve us in Virtue, and the moſt effectual Way to keep our Conſciences awake, and to make us ſtand in awe of ourſelves, and afraid to ſin, when we know before-hand that we muſt give ſo ſevere an Account to ourſelves of every Action. And when we are employing our Minds in this Duty of Self-Examination, before the Communion, or at any other time, we muſt diſcharge it as impartially as is poſſible for us, judging as ſeverely of our own Actions, as we would do of our greateſt and worſt Enemy; or otherwiſe we ſhall but flatter and deceive ourſelves in a Matter of the greateſt Weight and Importance, viz. of knowing the State and Condition of our own Souls: But if our Enquiries are juſt and true, we ſhall then plainly diſcover wherein, and how often we have gone aſtray, and done amiſs. We ſhall, by the faithful Diſcharge of this Duty, bring to Light all our ungodly, unjuſt, and uncharitable Actions; all our vain and filthy Speeches; all our wanton, proud, and covetous Thoughts. Such a ſtrict and impartial Examination will diſcover to us that accurſed Thing Sin, Deut. vii. 26. Which has defiled our Nature, made God our Enemy, and will exclude us the Kingdom of Heaven, if not repented of, 1 Cor. vi. 9, 10. But by ſuch a ſevere Scrutiny as this, we ſhall ſoon perceive the Number of our Tranſgreſſions, what vile Wretches and grievous Offenders we are, how often we have broken our moſt ſerious Vows and Reſolutions, eſpecially after the receiving the Holy Sacrament, and in Times of Sickneſs and Diſtreſs: Such a Sight, and ſuch a Proſpect of Miſery as this, ſhould excite in us a hearty Trouble and Sorrow for Sin; eſpecially if we caſt an Eye upon the final Iſſue and Conſequences of it, with reſpect to the World to come. Upon the Ungodly (ſaith Holy David) God will rain Snares, Fire and Brimſtone, Storm and Tempeſt; this ſhall be their Portion to drink.

Pſal.

Pſal. xi. 7. Great Plagues remain for the Ungodly, Indignation and Wrath, Tribulation and Anguiſh, upon every Soul of Man that doeth Evil. Rom. ii. 8, 9. The Wicked ſhall be turned into Hell, and all the People that forget God. Theſe, and many other ſuch like Texts of Scripture, may give us ſome Idea or Notion of the deplorable Condition of the Wicked in a future State, and of God's Hatred againſt Sin; and is not this then, without multiplying Arguments, ſufficient to affect us with great Grief and Sorrow, when we conſider that ſo long as we live in a vicious Courſe, ſo long are we expoſed to all thoſe Plagues and Torments which God hath in Store for wicked Men; and will moſt certainly be their Lot and Portion, if not prevented by a timely Repentance?

Contrition.

The ſecond Part of a true Repentance is Contrition, or a ſorrowful Bewailing of our own Sinfulneſs, in Thought, Word, and Deed. When we call to mind the Sins and Follies of our paſt Lives, and the Dangers we are like to fall into, ſurely we cannot be otherwiſe affected than ſenſibly grieved with the Thoughts and Apprehenſions of our preſent and approaching Miſery. The Sorrows of David, and the Repentance of St. Peter, 2 Sam. 12. Luke 22. ſhewed themſelves in Floods of Tears, and were too big to be confined within: But our Hearts are generally ſo hard and unrelenting, that we ſin againſt God, and loſe our own Souls without ſo much as a Sigh or Tear. I know that the Tempers of People are different; ſome can ſhed Tears upon every ſlight Occaſion, and others cannot weep, though their Hearts are ready to break for Grief; and therefore we are not to judge of the Sincerity of our own or other People's Repentance by ſuch Signs and Tokens; nor are Tears always neceſſary to Repentance, though they very well become us; and the leaſt we can do when we have done amiſs, is to be ſorry for it, and condemn our Folly, and to be full of Indignation and Diſpleaſure againſt ourſelves. I will declare my Iniquity (ſaith Holy David) and be ſorry for my Sin, Pſ. xxxviii. 18. eſpecially if we have been very wicked, and have multiplied our Tranſgreſſions, and have continued long in an evil Courſe, have neglected God, and have forgotten him Days without Number, then the Meaſure of our Sorrow muſt bear ſome Proportion to the Degrees of our Sins; if they have been as Scarlet and Crimſon, Iſaiah i. 18. that is, of a deeper Dye than ordinary, then our Sorrow muſt be as deep as our Guilt; if not ſo great, we ought to ſhew ſo much Trouble and Contrition of Spirit, as to produce in us a penitential Confeſſion of all our former Sins;

Confeſſion of Sin.

Which is the third Property of a ſincere Repentance. I will acknowledge my Sin unto thee, (ſays the Prophet David) and mine Unrighteouſneſs have I not hid; I ſaid I will confeſs my Sins unto the Lord, and ſo thou forgaveſt the Iniquity of my Sin. Pſalm xxii. 5. Which Confeſſion of Sins muſt not be in in general Terms, that we are Sinners with the reſt of Mankind, but it muſt be a ſpecial Declaration to God of all our moſt heinous Sins in Thought, Word, and Deed, with all their ſeveral Aggravations, laying open our Sores to our Heavenly Phyſician; and this we muſt do to ſhew that we condemn all our former evil and vicious Courſes, with a full Purpoſe and Reſolution of Mind (by God's Aſſiſtance) that we never intend to do the like again. Unleſs this be done, our Sorrow for Sin and the Confeſſion of our Wickedneſs can never profit us in the Sight of God, if it be not joined with a firm Reſolution of leading a New Life;

A New Life.

Which is the fourth and moſt eſſential Part of a ſincere Repentance, and the only Condition of finding Mercy with God. He that covereth his Sin ſhall not proſper, but whoſo confeſſeth and forſaketh them, ſhall have Mercy. Prov. xxviii. 13. Let the Wicked Man forſake his Ways, and the unrighteous Man his Thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have Mercy upon him, and to our God, and he will abundantly pardon, Iſaiah lv. 7. I tell you nay, (ſaith Chriſt) but except ye repent ye ſhall all likewiſe periſh, Luke xiii. 3. Repent ye therefore and be converted, that your Sins may be blotted out. Acts iii. 19. Thoſe preceding Parts of Repentance before-mentioned, are only preparative to this, that which muſt complete and finiſh the Work of a new Convert, is to become a New Creature, to turn from our evil Ways, and

to break off our Sins by Righteouſneſs. This certainly muſt be the Deſire and Intention of all Communicants, if they hope or expect any Benefit or Advantage from this ſolemn Right or Covenant; for he that comes with a Deſign or Intention of continuing in his former Sins, comes ſomewhat like unto Judas, that came, and received, and at the ſame Time continued his Reſolution of betraying his Maſter. That which makes a Man abſolutely unfit to receive the Holy Sacrament, is the living in the conſtant and habitual Practice of any known Sin, without the leaſt Deſire or Intention of Repentance or Amendment. Such a Man's Approach to the Holy Table, no doubt, is to eat and drink his own Damnation, ſince it is a plain mocking of God, and a great Contempt and Abuſe of his Divine Authority. We muſt therefore (by the help and Aſſiſtance of God's Grace) reſolve to lead a New Life, following the Commandments of God, or otherwiſe our former Examinations will appear but ſlight and ſuperficial, our Sight and Senſe of Sin trivial and indifferent, our Sorrow and Contrition of Spirit forced and hypocritical, and our Confeſſions odious and formal. Therefore examine well the Sincerity of your Repentance and Reſolutions, that you neither deceive God nor yourſelves: Him you cannot, becauſe he is a Searcher of the Heart, and a Diſcerner of the Thoughts, nor will he accept of any Thing which is not hearty and unfeigned.

the Lord's Supper doth require perfect Obedience in all our Addreſſes to the Holy Altar, or that none muſt come, but ſuch as are in a ſinleſs State of Perfection: No, this were impoſſible, becauſe there is no Man which liveth and ſinneth not; for who can ſay, I have made my Heart clean, I am pure from my Sin; and that even the juſt Man falleth ſeven times a Day. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is not a converting, but a confirming Ordinance, intended to preſerve and increaſe that Spiritual Life and Grace which we received at our Baptiſm; ſo that when we come to the Holy Communion, we come thither for freſh Supplies of Grace and Goodneſs, for the ſtrengthening and refreſhing our Souls in all Holineſs and Virtue: As our natural Bodies are fed and nouriſhed with thoſe Elements of Bread and Wine, the ſame Effect is wrought in the Soul in the inward Man by theſe Holy Myſteries, as in the outward Man by Bread and Wine; Bread being the Staff of Life, and Wine the moſt Sovereign Cordial, (when taken in due Proportion) to chear and rejoice the Heart. And thus our Souls by this Sacrament are fortified and ſtrengthened with Grace, Wiſdom, Courage, and all other Spiritual Gifts, to keep us through Faith unto Salvation. Both the Comfort and Benefit of it, are great; the Comfort of it, becauſe it does not only repreſent to us the exceeding Love of our Saviour, in giving his Body to be broken, and his Blood to be ſhed for us, dience expected after the Holy Sacrament.

us, but it likewiſe ſeals to us all thoſe Bleſſings and Benefits which are purchaſed, and procured for us by his Death and Paſſion, viz. the Pardon of Sin and Power againſt it. This Benefit of frequent Communion is alſo of as great Advantage, becauſe hereby we are confirmed in all Grace and Goodneſs, and our Reſolutions to live in Obedience and Conformity to God's Laws are ſtrengthened, and the Grace of God's Holy Spirit, to do his Will, is hereby conveyed to us: It is the ſovereign Remedy againſt all Temptations, by mortifying our Paſſions, and by ſpiritualizing our Affections: In a Word, it is the likelieſt Method to make our Bodies the Temples of the Holy Ghoſt, and to prepare our Souls for the Enjoyment of God to all Eternity.

Relapſes after Receiving, not dangerous.

And if at any time, through Ignorance, Surprize, or the Violence of any other Temptation, we ſhould fall into thoſe very Sins which we have repented of and vowed againſt, when we were at the laſt Sacrament, yet theſe Relapſes ſhould not make us afraid of coming again, ſince we have always the Benefit of Repentance allowed us: If after a Relapſe we repent and renew our Reſolutions, with a hearty Grief and Contrition of Spirit, we are made whole as before. If the Wicked (ſaith God) will turn from all his Sins that he hath committed, all his Tranſgreſſions that he hath committed, they ſhall not be mentioned unto him. Ezek. xviii. 21, 22. Sin no more, ſays our Saviour to the Woman taken in Adultery, and I will

will not condemn thee, John viii. 11. It is not the Commiſſion of this or that great Sin that will utterly exclude us from God's Mercy and Forgiveneſs, for then, indeed, no Perſon could eſcape Damnation, becauſe there is not a juſt Man upon Earth that doeth Good and ſinneth not. Eccleſ. vii. 20. But it's our Living and Dying without Repentance and Amendment, that brings God's Wrath and Vengeance upon us. His Mercies are not limited, he will not only pardon us once or twice, but always upon our Repentance and Return to him. No Time, no Age, or Seaſon, does he except againſt, but whenever the Wicked Man turneth away from his Wickedneſs that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he ſhall ſave his Soul alive, Ezek. xviii. 26. Neither is there any Sin, though never ſo vile and heinous in its own Nature, but ſhall be remitted and forgiven, unleſs it be that againſt the Holy Ghoſt. All manner of Sins and Blaſphemies ſhall be forgiven unto Men, but the Blaſphemy againſt the Holy Ghoſt ſhall not be forgiven, Mat. xii. 31, 32. And conſequently, this Sin of Eating and Drinking unworthily, in the worſt Senſe, cannot be a damning Sin, becauſe God in the Goſpel (for Chriſt's Sake) has promiſed to forgive all our Sins, upon our Repentance, and therefore this of unworthy Receiving among the reſt.

Some People, I remember, have been very much concerned and diſcompoſed at their Devotions, upon the Repetition of ſome few Expreſſions contained in the laſt Exhortation to the the Communication, viz.—'Of being guilty of 'the Body and Blood of Chriſt our Saviour; of 'eating and drinking our own Damnation.——— 'Not conſidering the Lord's Body.———Kind- 'ling God's Wrath againſt us.———Provoking 'him to plague us with diverſe Diſeaſes, and ſun- 'dry Kinds of Death.' Theſe are hard Sayings, and ſome of them too hard to be underſtood: But however, they are all avoided and eſcaped by coming worthily, i. e. by Faith and Repentance: Therefore let not theſe terrible Expreſſions trouble you, or detain you from the Holy Communion: Repent and believe, and you are ſafe and ſecure from falling into any of thoſe Dangers which theſe Sentences may ſeem to threaten you with. So that the want of Preparation, as ſome Men have alledged, and in the Senſe they generally take it, can never be a ſufficient Plea or Pretence for their not coming to the Holy Communion; becauſe after our beſt and ſtricteſt Endeavours to prepare ourſelves, we profeſs, (before God and the Congregation) 'That we do not come to this Hea-' venly Table truſting in our own Righteouſ-' neſs, but in his manifold and great Mercies.' By theſe we are invited to come; and to the Mercy of God (through Chriſt) all of us muſt flee and take Sanctuary in, who has promiſed, that he will in no wiſe caſt out thoſe who come unto him, John vi. 17. A broken and a contrite Heart, O God, thou wilt not deſpiſe, Pſalm. li. 17. There is nothing dreadful in this Sacrament, but to the wilful, impenitent, and perſevering Sinner, inner, whoſe Condition is dreadful, and every age in Scripture is terrible againſt ſuch, wheher they come or not; but to the penitent and umble Soul, nothing is diſmal or affrighting in his Holy Feaſt; there are none condemned for nworthy Receiving, but ſuch who deſerve it or continuing in their Iniquities; and this Im-enitence renders even their Prayers an Abomi-ation unto the Lord. Though they never parake of the Body and Blood of Chriſt, they are n equal Danger with thoſe who Eat and Drink nworthily; nay, I might ſay in greater, beauſe the one uſeth the Means in Obedience to ur Saviour's Command; and the other wilully neglects that which would prevent his Damnation, if rightly conſidered, and timely pplied to. The ſureſt Way, I ſay, to prevent ur Damnation, is to receive the Sacrament ore frequently than Men uſually do, that by conſtant Participation of this Spiritual Food

f the Living Bread which comes down from Hea-en, their Souls may be nouriſhed in all Good-eſs, and new Supplies of God's Grace and oly Spirit may be continually derived to them or the purifying of their Hearts, and to enable hem to run the Ways of God's Command-nents with more Conſtancy and Delight than hey did before. So that the true Conſequence f Eating and Drinking unworthily, ſhould ra-her excite our Care and Diligence in this Duy, than delude us with falſe Reaſonings, to uch a Neglect as will certainly increaſe our Damnation; it being certain, that God will never

ver caſt any Man into eternal Flames for ſtriving to do his Duty as well as he can. If there be firſt a willing Mind, (ſaith the Apoſtle) it is accepted according to that a Man hath, and not according to that he hath not, 2 Cor. viii. 12. Neither ought we to think ſo unworthily of the Son of God, who came into the World to ſave Sinners, that he would inſtitute this Ordinance to be a Snare to entangle our Souls with. It was not ordained for Angels, or for glorified Saints, but for humble and penitent Sinners to bring them home to God; it being a Seal of their Pardon, and a refreſhing Declaration of our Heavenly Father's Readineſs to forgive the chiefeſt of Sinners for Jeſus's Sake, who graciouſly calls upon all who are wearied and oppreſſed with the Guilt and Burden of their Sins to come to him, and he will refreſh them, Mat. xi. 28. Chriſt came not to call the Righteous but Sinners to Repentance, Mat. ix. 13. And conſequently ſuch as account themſelves moſt unworthy, are thoſe very Perſons whom Chriſt doth here call and invite to the Sacrament, when deeply ſenſible of their Unworthineſs. Were we not Sinners, were we not conceived and born in Sin, we ſhould not need ſuch Means and Inſtruments of Grace as Sacraments are; but 'being by 'Nature born in Sin, and the Children of 'Wrath, we are hereby made the Children of 'Grace, and Inheritors of the Kingdom of 'Heaven.' They that are whole (ſaith Chriſt) have no need of a Phyſician, but they that are ſick. This being the Caſe of all Mankind, with reſpect reſpect to their Spiritual Life, there is no other way to free ourſelves from this Death of Sin, but ſpeedily to apply ourſelves to this Heavenly Phyſician, who came into the World to ſeek and to ſave thoſe that are loſt and ready to periſh; and the very Senſe of our own Unworthineſs, is of all other Arguments the beſt Qualification to recommend us to God's Favour and Mercy, ſince we know that he reſiſteth the Proud, [and preſumptuous Sinner] but never denies his Grace and Favour to the Humble and Meek. As often then as we come to the Holy Communion with ſuch an honeſt and true Heart, as to exerciſe our Repentance towards God, our Faith and Hope of his Mercy, through Chriſt, for the Forgiveneſs of our Sins, and our Love and Charity for all Mankind; ſuch a Temper and Reſolution of Mind as this, will doubtleſs render us worthy Partakers of theſe Holy Myſteries, and prevent us eating and drinking Damnation to ourſelves. Nay, I farther add, that any Perſon thus diſpoſed or qualified, may come (if it ſhould be required) at an Hour's Warning, as ſafely as he may come to Church, and ſay his Prayers, or to hear a Sermon. The Dueneſs of Preparation doth not ſo much depend upon our ſetting aſide ſo many extraordinary Days for the forcing ourſelves to a religious Poſture of Mind, as upon the plain natural Frame and Diſpoſition of our Souls, as they conſtantly ſtand inclined to Virtue and Goodneſs, through the general Courſe of our Lives. From whence I infer, that a Multitude of Buſineſs, or a Man's being deeply engaged in the Publick Affairs of this World, cannot be any juſt Plea or Pretence for his not coming to the Holy Communion; becauſe all Buſineſs is conſiſtent with the Duties of Religion, provided we govern our Affairs by Chriſtian Principles. Though ſuch Men have not Leiſure for ſo much actual Preparation, yet they may have that habitual Preparation, upon which the great Streſs ought to be laid in this Matter: Nay, even the conſcientious Diſcharge of a Man's Duty in his Buſineſs, may be one of the beſt Qualifications to recommend him to God, ſince every Man ſerves God when he follows his Calling with Diligence, and obſerves Juſtice and Honeſty in all his Dealings; and conſequently, the greater Danger and Temptation he is expoſed to through the Multiplicity of Buſineſs, the more need hath he of God's Grace and Aſſiſtance, which are abundantly communicated to us in this Holy Ordinance. So that Men of Buſineſs, if they have any ſerious Thoughts of another World, ought more eſpecially to lay hold on ſuch Opportunities which ſecure the Salvation of their Souls; for as they who have Leiſure ought to Receive conſtantly, as the beſt Improvement of their Time; ſo they that are engaged in many worldly Affairs, ought to come the oftner to the the Holy Communion, and learn how to ſanctify their Employments. But to proceed.

A lively Faith in God's Mercy.

The other Branch of a Communicant's Duty is, to examine whether he hath a lively Faith in God's Mercy through Chriſt. Examine yourſelves whether you be in the Faith, 2 Cor. xiii. 5. This Sacrament of the Lord's Supper being only appointed for ſuch Believers as own their Baptiſm, and profeſs the Faith of Chriſt crucified, and underſtand the fundamental Articles of the Chriſtian Religion, contained in the Apoſtles Creed, and alſo the End and Deſign of this Holy Inſtitution. The Benefits of our Saviour's Death and Paſſion in this Sacrament are indeed freely offered unto all, but only effectually to Believers. As many as received him, to them gave he Power to become the Sons of God, even to them that believe in his Name. John i. 12. And this is Life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jeſus Chriſt whom thou haſt ſent. John xvii. 3. All that Chriſt hath done and ſuffered for us Men and for our Salvation, can never profit us, unleſs we have Faith to believe it: That which muſt render the Benefits and Bleſſings of the Goſpel effectual to our Salvation, is, our Faith in Chriſt. Verily I ſay unto you, (ſaith our Saviour) he that heareth my Words, and believeth on him that ſent me, hath everlaſting Life, and ſhall not come into Condemnation, but is paſſed from Death into Life. John v. 24. The ancient Churches accounted thoſe only only faithful that had received the Lord's Supper; and the Germans allowed none to come unto their Sacrifices who had loſt their Shields; nor does our own Church allow, that any of us ſhould come to this Chriſtian Sacrifice without this Shield of Faith. Draw near with Faith, (ſays the Prieſt) and take this Holy Sacrament to your Comfort. And this Faith for the Object hath God's Mercy, through Chriſt, as the Fountain and Foundation of all thoſe infinite Bleſſings and Comforts which we gain by his Manifeſtation in the Fleſh; and if we enquire into the Cauſe and Reaſon of ſo much Mercy and Goodneſs to Mankind, no other can be given but the Riches of his Mercy, Eph. ii. 4. And if we enquire how this Mercy became ours, the Anſwer is plain, It was through Chriſt, by whom all the Bleſſings of this Life, and thoſe of a better are purchaſed for us, and muſt be obtained through the Merits and Interceſſion of the Holy Jeſus; by him we were redeemed, and according to the Riches of his Grace, we have obtained Remiſſion of our Sins, and through him at laſt we ſhall be glorified.

A thankful Remembrance of his Death.

And to this our Faith we muſt join a thankful Remembrance of his Death, and of thoſe Benefits which we receive thereby. Our gracious and merciful Lord (ſaith holy David) hath ſo done his marvellous Works, that they ought to be had in Remembrance. Pſal. cxi. 4. But eſpecially this Work of our Redemption by Jeſus Chriſt, which which to forget were an Ingratitude baſer and viler than ever Heathens or Publicans, the very worſt of Mankind among the Jews, were known to be guilty of towards their Benefactors. Mat. v. 46. Herein is Love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and ſent his Son to be the Propitiation for our Sins. 1 John iv. 10. This is a Mercy far above all other Mercies, nay, it is even this which ſweetens all other Mercies to us: Had there been no Redemption, our Creation had only made us capable of endleſs Torments, and it had been better for us never to have been born, than to inevitable Ruin; which muſt have been our Lot and Portion, had not 'the Son of God by his own Oblation of himſelf, once offered upon the Croſs, made a full, perfect, and ſufficient Sacrifice and Satisfaction to God for the Sins of the whole World.' The Conſequences of this Redemption are ſo infinitely great and valuable, that it as much ſurpaſſes our Underſtanding as it does our Merits. This we are to declare and to publiſh to all the World, what God hath done to ſave Mankind from that Damnation which they had deſerved, and to reſtore us again to that Happineſs and Glory, which we could never expect or hope to enjoy, had not Chriſt died for us. O come hither and hearken, all ye that fear God, and I will tell you what he hath done for my Soul. Pſalm lxvi. 16. Praiſe the Lord, O my Soul, and forget not all his Benefits, who forgiveth all thy Sins, and healeth all thine Infirmities; and ſaveth thy Life from Deſtruction, and crowneth thee with Mercy and Loving-kindneſs. Pſal. ciii. 2, 3, 4. With what Joy and Thankfulneſs then ſhould every good Chriſtian commemorate this exceeding Love of God in the Salvation of Sinners by Jeſus Chriſt! This was the proper End and Deſign of this Inſtitution, to perpetuate this wonderful Love of Chriſt in laying down his Life for us. Do this in Remembrance of me, ſaid our Saviour a little before his Crucifixion; which being a ſolemn Command of our Maſter and only Saviour, thus dying for us, we cannot refuſe Obedience hereunto, without being guilty of the moſt horrible Ingratitude and Contempt of his Divine Authority. He hath appointed it for a ſolemn Commemoration of his great Love to us in laying down his Life for us Men, and for our Salvation, and therefore he commands us to do it in Remembrance of him. And St. Paul tells us that as often as we eat this Bread, and drink this Cup, we do ſhew forth the Lord's Death 'till he come. As for thoſe Men then amongſt us who profeſs themſelves Chriſtians, and hope for Salvation by Jeſus Chriſt, not to pay Obedience to this his Command, is a downright Affront to his ſacred Majeſty; and he may juſtly upbraid us Chriſtians, as he did once the Jews, Why call ye me Lord, Lord, and do not the Things which I ſay? How unworthy are we of that Salvation which he hath wrought for us, if we deny him ſo ſmall a Favour, ſuch a reaſonable Requeſt,

Our Obligations to a frequent Communion.

s to commemorate his Death and bitter Paſ-ion once a Month, or at moſt thrice a Year;
who 'did humble himſelf even to the Death of the Croſs for us miſerable Sinners, who lay in Darkneſs, and in the Shadow of Death, that he might make us the Children of God, and exalt us to everlaſting Life.'

Mens own Intereſt ſhould oblige them to a conſtant Communion, becauſe of its great Benefits.

n this Sacrament of the Lord's upper we have the Pardon nd Remiſſion of all our Sins, he Grace and Aſſiſtance of God's Holy Spirit, and the Hopes of eternal Life and Happineſs freely ffered unto us: And therefore, had we no Love, no Regard or Reverence to the dying Words of our crucified Saviour, yet ſurely the Conſideration of our own preſent and future Advantage might prevail with us to be more requent at the Lord's Table than we uſually re.

Hitherto a Communicant hath een directed to ſet his Heart ght towards God, but this not all, he muſt proceed fur-her, and enquire how it ſtands owards his Neighbour, ſince ve are expreſly forbidden, Mat. v. 23, 24. to offer up ny Gift or Oblation unto God, our Hearts are leavened with Malice, Hatred, or Revenge.

And to be in Charity with all Men.

Forgiving of Injuries expected from a Communicant.

If thou bring thy Gift unto the Altar, and there rememberest that thy Brother hath aught against thee, leave there thy Gift before the Altar, and go thy Way, first be reconciled to thy Brother, and then come and offer thy Gift. Here you see that Christ prefers Mercy before Sacrifice. And it's generally agreed on by the ancient Fathers, that these Words of our Saviour do directly point at this Sacrament, on purpose to oblige all Communicants to forgive all manner of Injuries, before they presume to eat of that Bread, or to drink of that Cup. And its expressly said, Mat. vi. 14, 15. that our Prayers are not accepted, nor our Pardon sealed in Heaven, until such time as we forgive Men their Trespasses; and to be sure we can never be welcome or worthy Guests at this heavenly Feast, where Jesus the Saviour of Penitents and the Prince of Peace is spiritually present, unless our Repentance reconcile us to God and our Charity to all Mankind.

Charity to the Poor.

And this Charity of the Heart in forgiving of Injuries, must likewise shew itself by the Hand, in relieving the Wants and Necessities of the Poor. We read, That when the Sacrament was administered in the Apostles Days, that large Collections of Monies were then gathered for the Maintenance of the poor Clergy and Laity. Acts ii. 44, 45, 46 and 1 Cor. xxi. 1. And Theodoret observes that Theodosius the Emperor, when the time came to offer, arose, and presented his Oblations with his own Hands. It was not determined lined how much every Man ſhould give, but Men were exhorted and enjoined to offer mething according to their Ability, which any neglected, the Fathers cenſured them unworthy Communicants; and to be ſure othing within our Power can ſo effectually commend our Prayers and Devotions like is of Charity: It being well obſerved, Mat. . that our Saviour hath incloſed Alms between rayer and Faſting, and therefore they are called Two Wings, without which it will never e ſo high as the Throne of God. While ornelius was faſting and praying, we read that Angel from Heaven was diſpatched to him ith this happy Meſſage, Thy Prayers and ine Alms are come up for a Memorial before od, Acts x. 4. He that hath Pity upon the oor lendeth unto the Lord, and that which he th given will he pay him again. Prov. xix. . Charge them that are rich in the World —— that they be rich in good Works, ready to ſtribute, willing to communicate, laying up in ore for themſelves a good Foundation againſt the me to come, that they may lay hold on eternal ife. 1 Tim. vi. 17, 18, 19. Do you not ow, that they who miniſter about Holy Things e of the Sacrifice, and they who wait at the ltar, are Partakers with the Altar? Even hath the Lord alſo ordained, that they who reach the Goſpel ſhould live of the Goſpel, 1 Cor. . 13, 14. If we have ſown unto you Spiritual hings, is it a great Matter if we ſhall reap ur worldly Things? Ver. 11. But we may juſtly complain with St. Baſil, that we know ſome who will faſt and pray, ſigh and groan, yea, and do all Acts of Religion, which coſt them nothing, but will not give one Farthing to the Poor. What Benefit is there (ſaith he) of all the reſt of their Devotions? Basil Hom. in Mat. xix.

Prayer.

And when the Communicant has thus far advanced towards the Altar, in his Examination, Repentance, &c. he muſt not forget another excellent Preparative belonging to this Duty, of communicating worthily, which although it be not mentioned in our Church Catechiſm, yet it is always implied, as a neceſſary Part of our Sacramental Preparation, i. e. *Prayer, private and publick; a Duty upon which all our preſent and future Bleſſings depend, Mat. vii. 8. and 21, 25. And ſo near a Relation hath this Duty of Prayer with this Sacrament, that all thoſe Bleſſings therein contained and promiſed, are only in Return to our Prayers; and no doubt but that Man who makes a conſcientious Practice of this Duty in his Cloſet, and at Church, can never be unprepared for this Sacrament, nor want a Title to God's peculia peculiar Favour and Bleſſing; For the Eyes of the Lord are over the Righteous, and his Ears are open unto their Prayers. 1 Pet. iii. 12. The conſtant Exerciſe of Prayer, is the beſt Method to get the Maſtery over the evil Inclinations and corrupt Affections, and to overcome our vicious Habits: It preſerves a lively Senſe of God and Religion in our Minds, and fortifies us againſt thoſe Temptations that aſſault us; it ſpiritualizeth our Nature, and raiſeth our Souls above this World, and ſupports us under the Troubles and Calamities of this Life, † by ſanctifying ſuch Afflictions; it leads us gradually to the Perfection of a Chriſtian Life, and preſerves that Union between God and our Souls, which feeds our ſpiritual Life with Grace and Goodneſs; without it we in vain pretend to diſcharge thoſe Chriſtian Duties incumbent on us, or to proſper in our Temporal Affairs, which muſt have God's Bleſſing to crown them with Succeſs. And as Prayer in general has theſe great Bleſſings and Advantages attending it, ſo give me leave to ſuggeſt to you under this Head, That thoſe Publick Prayers and Devotions, which we offer unto God in our Churches, are not only more acceptable to him, but alſo much much more edifying and advantageous to ourſelves; * they cannot but be more acceptable to God, becauſe thereby his Honour and Glory is much more conſiderably advanced and maintained in the World, than by our private Devotions: By theſe outward Signs and Tokens, we publickly declare to all the World that inward Regard and Eſteem which we have for his divine Perfections and Goodneſs; hereby we let our Light ſo ſhine before Men, that they may ſee our good Works, and glorify our Father which is in Heaven, Mat. v. 16. There is no Duty in Scripture more frequently commanded, none more earneſtly preſſed upon us, than this of Publick Prayer. We have the Example of all good Men in all Ages for it; and of Chriſt himſelf, who was daily in the Temple and in the Synagogues, and, no Queſtion, frequented thoſe Places at the uſual Hour of Prayer, becauſe then he had the faireſt Opportunity from thoſe Publick Aſſemblies, to inſtruct, and to exhort to Faith and Repentance. 2*dly*, we we may expect greater Bleſſings and Succeſs to our Requeſts and Deſires, when we join in the publick Prayers of our Church, than from private, becauſe our Saviour has in a ſpecial Manner promiſed to ſuch Aſſemblies his immediate Preſence, that where two or three are gathered together in his Name, there will he be in the midſt of them, which he hath no where ſaid the like of private, though both are very good, nay, both are abſolutely neceſſary for the Beginning and Ending of a Chriſtian Life; and it is a very bad Sign of ſome evil Principle or other, for any Man to be ſuch a Stranger to the Houſe of Prayer; which is one of the greateſt Bleſſings and Privileges (if we know how to value the ſame) that we can have in this World, and has always been accounted ſuch among all wiſe and good Men. It is certain that the Turks, whom we call Infidels, go to their publick Devotions five times every Day; and ſhall they not riſe in Judgment againſt us Chriſtians, who cannot afford to go once or twice a Day to God's Houſe, when we have both Leiſure and Opportunity. If Men ſhall be judged for every idle Word, to be ſure they ſhall not paſs unpuniſhed for all the Neglects and Omiſſions of their Duty of this Nature. But to proceed,

Reading and Meditation.

To this Duty of fervent Prayer, the Communicant ſhould ſpend ſome Portion of time in Reading and Meditation, to raiſe his Soul into a devout and Heavenly Temper: The proper Office of Reading is, to gain Spiritual Food and Suſtenance, and of Meditation to digeſt it. Thoſe divine Subjects, moſt proper for our ſerious Contemplation on this ſolemn Occaſion, I think, are our Saviour's Sermon on the Mount, the Love of God in the Salvation of Sinners through Jeſus Chriſt, Repentance, Faith, Charity, * Death and Judgment; the happy Condition of a future State of Bleſſedneſs, and the miſerable Condition of the Damned in Hell. Theſe, and the like, as they offer themſelves unto you, ſhould be meditated upon until ſome Sorrow of Mind, ſome Ardour of Devotion, ſome Act of Faith, ſome Flame of Love and Charity, ariſe in your Souls.

Thus have I briefly repreſented to you both the Nature and Neceſſity of a Sacramental Preparation, which in a great Meaſure contains the whole Duty of a Chriſtian's Life, viz. Repentance towards God, Faith towards our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and Charity towards our Neighbour: And I alſo hope, whoſoever among us will but endeavour to prepare themſelves for the Holy Communion, according to the forementioned Directions, may (by the Help of God) upon all Occaſions, come to the Lord's Table without the leaſt Fear or Danger Danger of eating and drinking Damnation to themſelves.

And now ſome People may cenſure this Diſcourſe, as giving too great Liberty and Encouragement to approach the Lord's Table with leſs Preparation than otherwiſe Men would venture to do: But I know no Ground or Reaſon for any ſuch Suggeſtion, if they impartially conſider the Excellence and Perfection of that Guide and Companion I have followed throughout the whole: And to repreſent this Duty of frequent Communion otherwiſe than what the Church requires, is an Injury both to God and to ourſelves: And I dare affirm, that no Part of Divine Worſhip has ſuffered more on this Account, than that of the Holy Communion, Thouſands of People not daring (in all their Life-time, though very good Livers) to partake of the Lord's Supper, for fear of eating and drinking their own Damnation.

Prayers and Meditations

Preparative to a

Sacramental Preparation;

According to

What the Church of England requires from her Communicants.

A Prayer to God for his gracious Aſſiſtance and Direction in our Sacramental Preparation.

HOLY, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabbath, Heaven and Earth are full of thy Majeſty, and of thy Glory: I the unworthieſt of all Creatures, do here in Humility of Soul and Body, proſtrate myſelf before thee, acknowledging my own Weakneſs and Inſufficiency to do any thing that is good or well-pleaſing in thy Sight; and therefore humbly implore the ſpecial Influence of thy Grace and Holy Spirit, to further theſe my Endeavours for a worthy Participation of this Holy Communion of the Body and Blood of Chriſt, which he has commanded me to do in Remembrance of him, and of thoſe Benefits which we receive thereby: Teach me,

O

O Lord, the right Way, and lead me in the Paths of holy Preparation, that I may be received as a worthy and welcome Gueſt at this thy heavenly Table. Poſſeſs my Mind with a truer Senſe of the Greatneſs of this Myſtery, and the Excellency of thy Mercy, in preparing this Table for our Spiritual Food. Inſpire my Soul with pure and pious Diſpoſitions, and inſtead of thoſe filthy Rags of my Righteouſneſs, clothe me with the Righteouſneſs of thy Saints, that my Heart may be a clean, though homely Receptacle for my Saviour, and fitted for the Society of that Celeſtial Company, which are to be met with at this ſacred Solemnity, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen. Our Father, &c. See Pſalm 23. 26. 111.

A Prayer for the Gift and Grace of Repentance.

ALMIGHTY and eternal Lord God, who art of purer Eyes than to behold Iniquity, and haſt more eſpecially enjoined all thoſe who compaſs thine Altar to waſh their Hands in Innocency, vouchſafe me unfeigned Repentance for my paſt Sins, a hearty Sorrow and Contrition of Spirit to lament my Sinfulneſs, and moſt firm and ſtedfaſt Purpoſes to lead a new Life. It is the Voice of thy wondrous Goodneſs and Mercy, That if the Wicked will forſake his Ways, and the unrighteous Man his Thoughts, thou wilt have Mercy upon him, and abundantly pardon him. O let thy Goodneſs (whereof I have had ſo great a Share and plentiful Experience) lead me to Repentance not to be repented of, that I may be a fit Gueſt at thy Son's Table. Have Mercy upon me, O Lord, and according to the Multitude of thy tender Mercies, blot out all my Tranſgreſſions, for thy Mercy's Sake in Chriſt Jeſus, the Son of thy Love, whom thou haſt ſet forth to be the Propitiation for our Sins. Grant this, O merciful Father, for the Sake of my bleſſed Saviour and Redeemer. Amen. See Pſalm 6, 25, 32, 38.

A Prayer before Self-Examination.

O Lord, thou that art the Searcher of all our Hearts, and a Diſcerner of the very Thoughts, and in whoſe Sight all things are naked and open, be pleaſed to impart a Ray of thy Heavenly Light, to diſcover all the Sins and Infirmities of my paſt Life, and whatſoever elſe thou knoweſt wherein I have done amiſs, that henceforward no ſecret Sin may lie undiſcovered and corrupted in my Soul, that by examining my Life and Converſation by thy Law, the Rule and Meaſure of my Duty, I may underſtand the true State and Condition of my Soul, and from a juſt Senſe and Sight of all my Tranſgreſſions, through the Aſſiſtance of thy Grace and Heavenly Benediction, I may be enabled to reform my Life, and to turn my Feet unto thy Teſtimonies, ſo faithfully to ſearch and examine my own Conſcience, that I may come holy and clean to that Heavenly Feaſt, and be received as a worthy Partaker of that holy Table

Table which thou haſt called me to: Grant this for thy Mercies ſake in Chriſt Jeſus. Amen. See Pſalm 139.

Brief Heads of Self-Examination upon each Commandment.

Commandment I.

'THOUGH I have not Atheiſtically denied the Being of a God, or wickedly renounced him by Apoſtacy, yet have I not loved, deſired and delighted in other things more than in God? Or, have I not feared Man, and dreaded the Diſpleaſure of the World more than God? Or, have I not truſted in Men, and relied upon the World, more than upon God? Have I not deſpaired of God's Mercy? Or, by preſuming too much upon it, encouraged myſelf in Sin? Have I not been unthankful for Mercies received? Or, have I not aſcribed the Glory and Honour of what I now enjoy, to myſelf, more than to God.' (Say) God be merciful to me a Sinner, and lay not this (or thoſe) Sins to my Charge. Repeat the ſame at the End of every Commandment.

II.

'Though I have not worſhipped God by Images, yet have I not entertained groſs and falſe Conceptions of him? Or, have I not wilfully omitted coming to Church or to the 'publick

'publick Prayers, when I had no juſt Occa-
'ſion to hinder me? Or, have I not rudely, or 'irreverently or wantonly behaved myſelf du'ring the Time of Divine Service? Or, have
'I not wilfully refuſed to come to the Lord's 'Supper, when I have been called to it? Or,
'have I not raſhly and unadviſably received the 'Sacrament without a Preparation? Or, have 'I not broken my Vows and Reſolutions which
'I then made?

III.

'If I have not openly blaſphemed the Name
'of God, yet have I not lightly or irreverent-
'ly ſpoken of him? Or, have I not profane-
'ly jeſted upon, or abuſed his holy Places
'or Perſons, or any thing elſe dedicated to 'his Service? Or, have I not taken God's 'Name in vain, by common Swearing and 'Curſing? Or, have I not broken my 'own Vows and Reſolutions, eſpecially my 'Baptiſmal?

IV.

'Have I not neglected the Worſhip of God
'on his Sabbaths? Have I not ſpent part there-
'of in vain Sports, idle Diſcourſes, Viſits,
'and many other unneceſſary Buſineſſes? Or,
'have I not ſuffered others to prophane the 'Sabbath, when it was in my power to reſtrain
'them from ſo doing?

V.

'Have I not been ſtubborn, irreverent, and 'undutiful towards my Parents, rejecting their 'Counſels, deſpiſing their Government, and coveting

coveting their Eſtates before their Death? Or, have I not contributed towards their Neceſſities when they were in Want, and I had to help them? Or, have I not been diſloyal to my Prince, ſtubborn and unfaithful to my Maſter, refractory and unthankful to my Miniſter, peeviſh and unkind to my Friend and Companion?

VI.

'If I have not actually taken away the Life of any Perſon, yet have I not made my Neighbour's Life grievous by Oppreſſion, Rage and Violence againſt him? Or, have I not by Fighting, or Quarrelling, wounded his Perſon? Or, have I not tempted him by any Vice or Intemperance, to deſtroy his Health, and ſo ſhorten his Days? Or, have I not by falſe and contumelious Speeches, wounded his good Name and Reputation? Or, have I not by my own Luxury and Intemperance in Eating and Drinking, been acceſſary to my own Death?

VII.

'If I have eſcaped the groſſer Acts of Adultery and Fornication, yet have I not conceived Luſt in my Heart, and neglected the means to preſerve my own and others Chaſtity? Or, have I not by Gluttony and Drunkenneſs, or any other impure Thoughts, defiled my Soul? Or, have I not accuſtomed myſelf to filthy Talking, Jeſting, and immodeſt Garbs, and unchaſte Behaviour in Common Converſation?

VIII.

VIII.

'If I have not been guilty of common 'and publick Stealing, yet have I been true 'and juſt in all my Dealings? Or, have I 'not contracted Debts, when I was conſcious 'to myſelf that I was not able to pay, or make 'Reſtitution? Or, have I not waſted my own, 'or other's Eſtates, by riotous living? Or, 'have I not by Violence and Oppreſſion ex-'acted of my Inferiors, or by unlawful Uſury 'taken Advantage of their Neceſſities?

IX.

'If I have not before the Magiſtrate ſworn 'falſely againſt any Man, yet have I not ac-'cuſtomed myſelf to Lying and Slandering? 'Or, have I not accuſed my Neighbour un-'juſtly? Or, have I not concealed the Truth 'of another, when Juſtice and Charity oblig-'ed me to give Evidence of it? Or have I 'not unjuſtly ſought to uphold, or to blaſt my 'own or others Credit?

'Have I not ſecretly complained againſt the 'Providence of God, as if others had too much, 'and I too little? Or, have I not by unlaw-'ful Means endeavoured to deprive others of 'their Goods and Proſperity? Or, have I la-'boured truly and faithfully to get my own 'Living, and to be content with that State of 'Life unto which it has pleaſed God to call me?

A Penitential Confeſſion of Sins, with an humble Supplication for Mercy and Forgiveneſs.

ALMIGHTY and Everlaſting God, who hateſt nothing that thou haſt made, and doſt forgive the Sins of all them that are penitent, create and make in me a new and contrite Heart, that I, worthily lamenting my Sins, and acknowledging my Wretchedneſs, may obtain of thee, the God of all Mercy, perfect Remiſſion and Forgiveneſs through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen. See Pſalm. 51, 6, 32, 38.

Here call to mind all your moſt grievous Sins.

An Act of Contrition.

FATHER, I have ſinned againſt Heaven and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy Son. Woe is me, O Lord, who was conceived and born in Sin; the Thoughts of my Heart are inclined unto Evil from my Youth. Woe is me, that have ſinned againſt thee, my Creator and kind Benefactor. Lord, I have done Evil continually in thy Sight, and my Life hath been little elſe than one continual Courſe of Impiety, Unthankfulneſs, and of unworthy Returns for all thy Godneſs and Loving-Kindneſs to me. Woe is me, that I ſhould thus requite the Lord. O that my Head were Waters, and mine Eyes a Fountain of Tears, that I might weep Day and Night

Night for my Sin! O gracious Lord, look on me as thou didſt on the Apoſtle St. Peter, and let thy compaſſionate Look, ſo pierce my ſtony Heart, that I may weep bitterly for my Sins, and produce in me that goodly Sorrow which worketh unto Salvation not to be repented of, for Jeſus's ſake. Amen. See Pſalm 25.

A Reſolution to lead a new Life.

AND now, O Lord, I do not only with great Shame and Confuſion of Face confeſs and bewail the Sinfulneſs and Vanity of my whole Life, but I do ſtedfaſtly reſolve and purpoſe (through the Aſſiſtance of thy Grace and Holy Spirit directing me) to 'renounce 'the Devil and all his Works, the Pomps and 'Vanities of this wicked World, and all the 'Luſts of the Fleſh.' Be pleaſed, O Lord, to ſtrengthen and confirm theſe good Reſolutions in me. And I heartily thank thee, O Heavenly Father, for calling me to the State of Salvation through Jeſus Chriſt my Saviour, who died for my Sins and roſe again for my Juſtification; and I humbly beſeech thee, for his Sake, to give me Grace to continue in the ſame unto my Life's End. Amen. See Pſalm 1, 23, 24, 25, 119, 126.

A Prayer for Faith in God's Mercy through Chriſt.

ALMIGHTY God, our Heavenly Father, who for the more Confirmation of our Faith and Confidence in thy Mercy, haſt haſt in thy Holy Goſpel declared, that whoſoever believed in thy Son Jeſus Chriſt, ſhall not periſh, but have everlaſting Life; and that this is Life eternal to know thee, the only true God, and Jeſus Chriſt whom thou haſt ſent: Increaſe this Knowledge, and confirm this Faith in me evermore. O let me not reſt in a dead Faith, but that I may have ſuch a lively Faith, as will ſhew itſelf by Love and good Works; ſuch a victorious Faith, which may enable me to overcome the World, and conform me to the Image of thy Son Jeſus Chriſt, in whom I believe. O grant me ſuch a due Senſe of thy infinite Mercy, ſhewed to Mankind in ſo much Miſery, as may never depart out of my Mind. I ſtedfaſtly believe, O bleſſed Jeſus, that thou didſt ſuffer upon the Croſs to ſave me, and all the World, from the Guilt and Puniſhment of our Sins; O give me that Grace, that I may die to Sin, and riſe again unto Righteouſneſs. Accept of my imperfect Sorrow, Repentance, Faith, and imperfect Reſolution; and let thy precious Merits of my crucified Saviour ſupply all my Wants and Imperfections. Thou haſt ſaid, Come unto me, all ye that are weary and heavy laden, and I will refreſh you. O bleſſed Jeſus, I come unto thee in all Humility, and deeply ſenſible of my great Unworthineſs; O do thou bear this Burthen of Sin for me, and refreſh me with comfortable Hopes of thy Mercy and Forgiveneſs, and the Truth of thy Salvation.

Salvation. Grant this, O merciful Father, through the ſame thy Son Jeſus Chriſt. Amen. See Pſalm xix. 57. Eph. ii. 6. 11.

A thankful Remembrance of the Death of Chriſt.

'ALMIGHTY God, our heavenly 'Father, who of thy tender Mercy 'didſt give thine only Son Jeſus Chriſt to 'ſuffer Death upon the Croſs for our Re-'demption, and haſt inſtituted and ordained 'Holy Myſteries as Pledges of his Love, and for 'a continual Remembrance of his Death and 'Paſſion, to our great and endleſs Comfort.' Behold I do moſt affectionately, and with all the Powers of my Soul and Body, return thee moſt hearty Praiſe and Thankſgiving for thy great Mercy and tender Compaſſion to me and all Mankind, in ſending thine only Son into the World to redeem us from Sin and Miſery, and by his meritorious Death and Paſſion, to purchaſe for us eternal Life. Grant, O Lord, that I may always moſt gratefully remember this exceeding Love of my only Saviour Jeſus Chriſt, thus dying for me; and work in me all ſuch holy and heavenly Affections, as may diſpoſe my Heart to be a worthy Gueſt at thy holy Table, prepared for the continual Remembrance of the Sacrifice of the Death of Chriſt, and of thoſe Benefits which we receive thereby. Praiſe the Lord, O my Soul, and forget not all his Benefits, who forgiveth all thy Sins, and healeth all thine Infirmities, who ſaveth thy Soul from Deſtruction, and and crowneth thee with Mercy and Loving-Kindneſs. See Pſalm 103. 2, 3, 4.

A Prayer for the Grace of Charity.

'O Lord, who haſt taught us that all 'our Doings without Charity are no-'thing worth; ſend thy Holy Ghoſt, and 'pour into my Heart that moſt excellent 'Gift of Charity, the very Bond of Peace 'and of all Virtues, without which who-'ſoever liveth is counted dead before thee;' more eſpecially, when I am going to commemorate the unſpeakable Love of my Bleſſed Saviour in dying for me, let not my Heart be deſtitute of Love towards my Brethren; extend thy Mercy and Forgiveneſs to all mine Enemies, Perſecutors and Slanderers, and turn their Hearts; which I as ſincerely beg for them, as I hope for Mercy and Forgiveneſs at thy Hands. Poſſeſs me with Kindneſs and Goodwill for all Mankind, that my Faith may work by Love, and diſpoſe my Heart according to my Ability, to adminiſter towards the Wants and Neceſſities of thoſe who are any Ways afflicted or diſtreſſed in Mind, Body, or Eſtate, and do unto all Men as I would they ſhould do unto me; and give me that Charity which covereth a Multitude of Sins, that by doing Good for Evil, all Men may know that I am thy Diſciple. Grant this for Jeſus's Sake. Amen. See Pſalm 15. 133. 41. 112. Mat. 25. 34, 41. Mat. 18. 21. 1 Cor. 13.

A Prayer the Morning you intend to communicate

O Moſt gracious and eternal Lord God, thou haſt called all ſuch who are weary and heavy laden to come unto thee by Faith and Repentance, and thou wilt refreſh them. In affiance of this thy gracious Invitation, I will come to thy Heavenly Table, not truſting in my own Righteouſneſs, but in thy manifold and great Mercies; and although I am not worthy ſo much as to gather up the Crumbs that fall from thy Table, yet ſince it's thy Property always to have Mercy, I will not deſpair of a kind Reception: Forgive my want of a due Preparation, and accept of my ſincere Deſire to perform an acceptable Service unto thee: Clothe me with the Wedding-Garment, even the Graces of the Goſpel, and then I am ſure I ſhall be a welcome Gueſt at thy Table, when I ſhall come thither in the likeneſs of thy Son Jeſus Chriſt, in whom thou art well pleaſed. Poſſeſs my Soul with a lively Faith, profound Humility, filial Obedience, inflamed Affections, and univerſal Charity, that ſo I may come a worthy Partaker of thoſe holy Myſteries, to my great and endleſs Comfort. Grant this, O heavenly Father, if it be thy bleſſed Will, through Jeſus Chriſt, Amen. Our Father, &c. See Pſalm 23. 25, 26.

Short

Short Prayers and Meditations before the Miniſter at Church begins the Communion.

At going up to the Altar.

IN the Multitude of thy tender Mercies, O Lord God, do I now approach thine Altar. O pardon my Sins, and look not upon my Unworthineſs (for I am a ſinful Creature, O Lord) but upon theſe Motives which drew me hither, even my own Miſeries and thy tender Mercies; therefore help me to ſupply in Humility what I want in Worthineſs, and let my bended Knees and contrite Heart ſhew that I durſt not have adventured hither, had not thy Mercy held out the Golden Sceptre, and ſaid, Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will refreſh you.

At giving your Alms.

O Lord, who didſt not deſpiſe the Widow's Mite, accept of this little which I freely offer towards the Relief of any of thy Poor Members. Mark xii. 42.

When the Prieſt is ſetting in order the Elements to be conſecrated.

LOOK down, O Lord God, from thy holy Habitation, and from the glorious Throne of thy Kingdom, and ſanctify us.

When you receive the Bread.

LORD, I am not worthy of the Crumb which fall from thy Table, and yet thou giveſt unto me the Bread of Life. Evermore give me this Bread, that I may eat hereof, and not die eternally, John vi. 34, 50.

After the Receiving of the Bread.

NOT unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy Name give the Praiſe, for thy loving Mercy, and for thy Truth's ſake.

Before the Receiving the Cup.

WHAT Reward ſhall I give unto the Lord for all the Benefits he hath done unto me; I will receive the Cup of Salvation, and call upon the Name of the Lord.

After Drinking.

BLESSED be God the Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, for his unſpeakable Gift, in whom we have Redemption through his Blood, even the Forgiveneſs of our Sins.

When you retire from the Altar.

BLESS the Lord, O my Soul, and all that is within me bleſs his holy Name; bleſs the Lord

Lord, O my Soul, and forget not all his Benefits; who forgiveth all thine Iniquities, and healeth all thy Diſeaſes; who redeemeth thy Life from Deſtruction, and crowneth thee with Loving-kindneſs and tender Mercies. O let that heavenly Food, which thou haſt ſo lately fed me with, transfuſe new Life and new Vigour into my Soul, and into the Souls of all thoſe who have been Partakers with me of this Holy Communion, that our Faith, Hope and Charity may daily increaſe, and that we may all grow in Grace, and in the Knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jeſus Chriſt. Amen and Amen. See Pſalm 8. 23, 66, 103.

Prayers and Meditations, which may be joined to the former, where the Communions are large.

Aſpirations for a Devout Communicant.

ENLIGHTEN, O Lord, the Eyes of my Underſtanding with the Light of Faith and Wiſdom, that I may ever look on thee my Redeemer, as the Way, the Truth, and the Life, which leadeth unto eternal Life.——What am I, Lord, and what is my Father's Houſe, that thou ſhouldſt thus follow me with thy Bleſſings? I was created by thee and for thee, and may'ſt thou ever be the Comfort of my Soul. Good Jeſus, my Hope and only Refuge, I here render thee hearty Thanks for all thy Sufferings, and I beg that I may find Shelter in thy Wounds, againſt all Enemies, Ghoſtly and Bodily: Imprint the Memory of them faſt in my Heart, that I may love thee, and in all my Sufferings never want thy Divine Aſſiſtance, or forget what thou haſt ſuffered for me.——— Take from me all Self-Love, and give me perfect Love for thee, the only true God and Jeſus Chriſt, whom thou haſt ſent, that I may now be more faithful in my Duty; and let nothing for the future put me out of my way.———O that I could ever remember thee, think of thee, and delight in thee alone, and love thee only, who haſt loved us, and waſhed us with thy moſt precious Blood, from the Guilt of our Sins.———O that my Senſes may ever be ſhut againſt all Vanity and Sin, that my Mind being free from all fruitleſs Solicitude and Fear, I may fix my Heart there where true Joys are only to be found.—From henceforth, I will only ſeek thee, my only Good; my Affections and Deſires ſhall be fixed on thee, in whoſe Preſence there is Fulneſs of Joys, and at whoſe Right-Hand there are Pleaſures for evermore.———My Will I now reſign into thy Hands, deſiring that thy Will may be mine, both now and for ever. Be thou my Inſtructor and Director in all things, that I may never do or ſpeak, deſire or think, any thing but what is according to thy Good Will.

2. I AM thy Servant, O Lord, O give me Underſtanding according to thy Word, that I may learn thy Commandments, and lay lay aſide all Intereſt, beſide that of Heaven. O ſweet Jeſu, Fountain of all Goodneſs, guide my Feet in thy Paths, and teach me to do thy Will: Diſengage my Heart from all unprofitable Solicitude and vain Affectation; and though I live here upon Earth, yet raiſe my Affections on things above. How ſweet, O Lord, is thy Spirit, how pleaſant to my Lips are the Words of thy Mouth? O that I could ever be mindful of them, to fulfil thy Laws. Make me die daily to the World and all its Concupiſcences, and let the Greatneſs of thy Love make all that is earthly appear as nothing to me: Protect me againſt mine Enemies, and in all Dangers appear in my Defence. Make haſte to help me, O God, and ſay unto my Soul, I am thy Salvation. Remember thou art my Father, and have Compaſſion on my poor diſtreſſed Soul; Clothe it with all Virtues, and feed it with thy Grace, for it belongs to the Father to take care of his Children. In thee I live, ſweet Jeſus, for thy Sake I deſire to die; both living and dying I will ever profeſs that thou art good, and that thy Mercy endures for ever.

3. O That I could now give thee, O Lord, all that Praiſe, Glory, and Honour, with which the Angels and Bleſſed Spirits glorify thee in Heaven! But becauſe I am unable to do this, accept at leaſt this my Deſire and good Will. Deliver me, O God, from every thing that is contrary to thy Will, and be pleaſed ſo to diſpoſe of my Soul as may be for thy Glory and Honour: I ſurrender myſelf into thy Hands, and entirely reſolve to ſubmit to that State of Life thou ſhalt pleaſe to appoint me; and if it be more for thy Honour that I ſuffer, I chearfully accept it; not my Will but thine be done. Let nothing now be my Comfort but thou Lord Jeſu, and nothing afflict me but my Sins, and whatever elſe is diſpleaſing to thy Divine Majeſty. O bleſſed Jeſus, Life eternal, by whom I live, and without whom I die, grant that I may now be united to thee, and in the Embraces of thy Holy Love and divine Will, I may reſt for ever. When ſhall I ſee thee, O ſweet Saviour, when ſhall I appear before thy Face, when ſhall I ſee thee in the Land of the Living? Till then, I ſigh and bewail my Baniſhment, deſiring to be diſſolved, and to be with Chriſt.

An Act of Thankfulneſs and Reſolution before the Poſt-Communion begins.

PRAISE the Lord, O my Soul, and all that is within me bleſs his Holy Name. For now I find the Mercy, the Peace, the Comfort, and the Grace which flows from this Fountain of Spiritual Communion with Chriſt: Let all the World know what he hath done for my Soul; he hath reſcued me, and many of theſe my poor Brethren from the nethermoſt Hell: Wherefore, I will love thee, O holy Jeſus, more than I can expreſs, and live and die in that moſt Holy Religion which thou haſt revealed to me. O let me never polute that Body, or defile that Soul, which the Saviour of the World delights to dwell in. O let no Oaths or Lyings, Backbitings and Slanderings, prophane thoſe Lips, no Obſcenity or Intemperance polute that Mouth, through which theſe Holy Symbols have ſo lately paſſed: For which freſh Inſtance of thy Mercy and Goodneſs, I will praiſe thy Holy Name, beſeeching thee to keep me in this Temper and Reſolution of Mind, until Death is ſwallowed up in Victory, for thy Son Jeſus Chriſt's ſake. Amen.

A Prayer againſt evil and perplexing Thoughts.

GO not far from me, O Lord, my God, make haſte to help me, for corrupt Imaginations are perpetually riſing in my Breaſt, and innumerable Fears and Sorrows cloſe me on every Side. Be pleaſed, O gracious Lord, in this Perplexity, to refreſh my Soul with ſome ſpeedy Comfort. Scatter and diſperſe all theſe dark and ſinful Thoughts which haunt my Soul, by ſhedding abroad the Light of thy Grace into my Heart; for in the Extremity of this my Grief this is my only Hope and Comfort, that I can take Sanctuary in thy Goodneſs, repoſe my Confidence, and caſt all my Care and Burthen on thee, who never faileſt them that call upon thee; give me Patience under theſe Adverſities, and a happy Iſſue out of all theſe Afflictions, both of Body and Mind. Turn unto me, and have Mercy upon me, for I am deſolate and in Miſery, the Sorrows of my Heart are enlarged; O bring thou me out of all my Troubles: Look upon my Adverſity and Miſery, and forgive me all my Sins; O keep my Soul and deliver me; let me not be confounded, for I have put my Truſt in thee, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen. See Pſalm 6. 102. 34. 42. 43.

Upon

Upon Chriſtmas-Day, and Seven Days after, you may add theſe to your other Devotions.

I Deſire, O Lord, to bleſs and praiſe thine infinite Goodneſs, which took Compaſſion upon Mankind in his greateſt Miſery, and haſt provided ſo admirable a Remedy by ſending thine only begotten Son to recover our corrupt and degenerate Nature, and by the Purity of his Doctrine, and the Example of his Life, and the Sacrifice of his Death, to purchaſe eternal Happineſs for us. Grant, O Lord, that through the Aſſiſtance of thy Grace and Heavenly Benediction, I may daily comply with thoſe great Things which thou haſt done and deſigned for my Salvation. Poſſeſs my Soul with Purity and Piety, and all other Chriſtian Graces and Virtues, that living ſoberly, righteouſly and godly, in this preſent World, I may hereafter dwell with thee, O Father of all Mercies and God of all Comforts, in thoſe Manſions of Bliſs and Glory, which thou haſt prepared for them that love thee. Amen. See Pſalm 19. 89. 44.

Eaſter-Day, and Seven Days after.

BLeſſed Jeſus, who haſt triumphed over the Power of Darkneſs, and conquered Hell and the Grave, and who by thy glorious Reſurrection, haſt made known the Power of thy Divinity, and proved thyſelf the true Meſſias, keep me ſtedfaſt in this Faith; and grant that all the Actions of my Life may teſtify the Reality and Sincerity of my Belief by a ſuitable Converſation, that I may riſe from the Death of Sin unto the Life of Righteouſneſs, that as I am buried with thee by Baptiſm, I may henceforward mortify all my corrupt Luſts and Affections, and daily proceed in all Virtue and Godlineſs of Living, that departing this Life in thy Faith and Fear, I may have my perfect Conſummation and Bliſs both in Body and Soul, and thy eternal and everlaſting Kingdom, through the ſame thy Son our Saviour Jeſus Chriſt. Amen. See Pſalm. 2. 57. 111.

Whitſunday, and Seven Days after.

O Lord my God, who by thy Son our Saviour Jeſus Chriſt haſt promiſed the Aſſiſtance of thy Holy Spirit to all that aſk it of thee, I beſeech thee always to direct my Ways and Actions, the Thoughts and Intentions of my Heart, by the Light of thy Holy Spirit. Let him be unto me a Spirit of Sanctification to purify my corrupt Nature; a Spirit of Counſel in all my Difficulties; of Direction in all my Doubts, Fears and Scruples; of Courage in all my Dangers; of Conſtancy and Conſolation to me under all my Perſecutions and Sufferings, eſpecially in Time of of Sickneſs, and at the Hour of Death, that being governed and guided by his divine Influence and Direction, I may paſs through all the Changes and Chances of this mortal Life, till he bring me to everlaſting Life, there to reign with thee, O bleſſed Jeſu, World without End. Amen. See Pſalm 34. 42. 43. 51.

Trinity-Sunday.

GLory be to thee, O God the Father, for creating me after thine own Image, capable of loving thee, and enjoying thee eternally; for recovering me from a State of Sin and Miſery, when I had loſt and undone myſelf.——Glory be to thee, O God the Son, for undertaking the wonderful Work of Man's Redemption, for reſcuing me from the Slavery of Sin, and the Dominion of Satan; for the accompliſhing this miraculous Work of our Salvation, thou didſt deſcend from Heaven, and didſt put on the Form of a Servant, live a miſerable Life, and die a painful and accurſed Death.——Glory be to thee, O God the Holy Ghoſt, for thoſe miraculous Gifts and Graces thou didſt beſtow upon the Apoſtles, and for thoſe ordinary Gifts whereby ſincere Chriſtians in all Ages are enabled to work out their Salvation, for thy preventing and reſtraining Grace, for the ſubduing our Underſtandings and Affections to the Obedience of Faith and Godlineſs; for inſpiring us with good Thoughts, and

and kindling good Deſires in our Souls; for aſſiſting us in all the Methods of procuring eternal Happineſs.——Bleſſing and Honour, Thankſgiving and Praiſe, more than I can expreſs and conceive, be unto thee, O Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt, for ever and ever. Amen. See Pſalm 2. 47. 72. 110.

After the Bleſſing, viz. The Peace of God.

GRANT, O Lord, that we and all thy faithful Servants, who have this Day been made Partakers of the Holy Sacrament, may obtain Remiſſion of our Sins, and be confirmed in Piety towards God, and in Charity towards our Neighbour: and may be delivered from the Power and Temptations of Satan; and being filled with thy Spirit, may become worthy Members of Chriſt's Holy Church, and at laſt inherit eternal Life, through the ſame our Lord Jeſus Chriſt. Amen.

A Thankſgiving after the Sacrament, to be ſaid at home.

THOU, O my God, haſt comforted my Soul, thou haſt ſtrengthened and refreſhed me with thy Bleſſings, and rejoiced my Heart with the Tokens of thy Love. How tranſporting are thy Comforts, and how raviſhing the Effects of thy Goodneſs towards them that fear thee? Thou haſt treated a vile

Sinner

Sinner at thy own Table, and fed me with the Bread that came down from Heaven. In what am I better than thoſe to whom thou doſt not grant this Favour? It is not for my Merits, but becauſe thou wilt be glorified in doing Good to the moſt unworthy; thou haſt this Day made me a happy Example of this thy free Grace and Bounty. Grant me this Favour alſo, O my God, that through the whole Courſe of my Life I may give thee Praiſe and Glory, that the due Senſe of thy Mercies may make me unfeignedly thankful; and that my Thankfulneſs may appear in a Care to walk before thee in Holineſs, Sobriety and Righteouſneſs all the Days of my Life.

A Prayer in private after the Receiving of the Holy Communion.

O How plentiful is thy Goodneſs, which thou haſt laid up for them that fear thee, which thou haſt prepared for them that put their Truſt in thy Mercy; even before the Sons of Men. I praiſe and magnify thy great and glorious Name, O Lord, for all thoſe manifold Mercies and Comforts which thou haſt beſtowed upon me, ever ſince I was born. O Lord God, thou haſt been my Truſt from my Youth, by thee have I been holden up from the Womb; My Praiſe ſhall continually be of thee; but above all, bleſſed and for ever bleſſed be thy holy Name, for the Manifeſtation of thy Son Jeſus Chriſt, the Fountain and Foundation of all our Happineſs, and for feeding me this Day (who am unworthy the leaſt of thy Mercies) with the Spiritual Food of his moſt precious Body and Blood, to my great and endleſs Comfort. Enable me, O Lord, through thy gracious Aſſiſtance, to perform the Conditions of that Sacramental Covenant which I have this Day ſo ſolemnly renewed and confirmed in thy Preſence and at thy Table, that through the Strength and Power of thy Heavenly Food, I have there been Partaker of, I may daily grow in Grace and in the Knowledge of Chriſt Jeſus, and abound in every good Word and Work. And ſubdue in me all thoſe inordinate Luſts and corrupt Affections which war againſt my Soul; purify my Mind from all evil Thoughts, bad Intentions, and evil Deſigns, and ſuffer not Pride, Vain-glory, Self-love, Malice, Hatred or Revenge, or any other Evil whatſoever, to reign in my mortal Body; but do thou keep it for ever in the purpoſe of my Heart, faithfully to fulfil theſe my Baptiſmal Vows and Reſolutions, which I have now again renewed at thy Holy Table, that by perſevering in all Virtue and Holineſs of Life, I may at length be an Inheritor of that infinite Happineſs and Glory, which thou haſt promiſed by Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer in private, for the Grace of Perſeverance.

HEAR, moſt merciful Saviour, I moſt humbly beſeech thee, and let thy Grace be ever aſſiſtant to all the Endeavours and and Deſigns of thy weak and unworthy Servant. I am not able of myſelf to do or think any thing that is good, or well-pleaſing in thy Sight. O let thy Holy Spirit continually guard me againſt thoſe numerous Temptations which ſo ſtrongly encounter me. Fix my inconſtant Mind, that I may not be led away with the Errors of the Wicked, and fall from my own Stedfaſtneſs, but that I may perſevere in good Works unto the End. Moderate my Affections and Deſires, and confine them only to ſuch Objects as are well-pleaſing in thy Sight. Let thy Will be the ſole Guide and Meaſure of mine, that all my Hopes and Wiſhes may centre in thee alone, and nothing may ever appear deſirable to me, in Compariſon of a pure Heart, and peaceable Conſcience: Teach my thy Way, O Lord, and I will walk in thy Truth. O knit my Heart unto thee, that I may fear thy Name. Make me to love thee (as I ought) above all Things, and let the Intereſt of thy Honour and Glory be always dearer to me than Gold or Silver, or any other Temporal Advantage; for thou, O Lord, art my Portion, thou art my only Reſt, in thee alone is Fulneſs of Joy and true Satisfaction, and without thee is Miſery and Torment. O grant me this bleſſed Retreat, this happy Security, and then I ſhall find Reſt unto my Soul both here and hereafter. Amen. See Pſalm 86. 119.

Morning

Morning Prayer.

PONDER my Words, O Lord, conſider my Meditations: My Voice ſhall thou hear betimes, O Lord, early in the Morning will I direct my Prayer unto thee, and will look up, Pſalm 5. 1, 3. Almighty God, who dwelling in the higheſt Heavens, yet vouchſafeſt to regard the loweſt Creatures here upon Earth, I humbly adore thy Sacred Majeſty, and with all the Powers of my Soul and Body, do exalt and praiſe thy Holy Name for all the Mercies and Comforts of this Life, and for the Hopes and Aſſurance of a better, for protecting me from the Evils and Dangers of the Night paſt, and for bringing me ſafely to the Light of a new Day; continue this thy Mercy and Goodneſs to me, and as thou haſt awakened my Body from Sleep, ſo raiſe my Soul from the Death of Sin unto a Life of Righteouſneſs. Deliver me, O God, from the Evils of this Day, and guide my Feet in the Paths of Peace and Holineſs, and ſtrengthen my Reſolutions to embrace all Opportunities of doing Good, and carefully to avoid all Occaſions of Evil, eſpecially cially * thoſe Sins which by Nature and Inclination I am moſt likely to fall into: And when through Frailty, or the Violence of any Temptation, I fall from my Duty, do thou in Mercy reſtore me again with a double Portion of that Grace and Holy Spirit, to maintain a more vigorous Defence againſt Satan, and his Devices. Shower down thy Graces and Bleſſings upon all my Relations, [on my Father and Mother, and my Brethren and Siſters] on all my Friends, and give thy holy Angels Charge over them, to protect them from all Sin and Danger: Make me diligent in the Duties of my Calling, and that in all the Changes and Chances of this Life, I may abſolutely ſubmit to thy Divine Providence. Let thy Bleſſings be upon my Actions, and let thy Wiſdom direct my Intentions, that ſo the whole Courſe of my Life, and the principal Deſigns of my Heart, may be ordered by the Governance, to do always that is righteous in thy Sight, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen. See Pſalm. 4. 16. 17. 23. 86.

LET my Prayer, O Lord, be ſet forth as Incenſe, and the lifting up of my Hands be as an Evening Sacrifice. Pſal. 141. 2. O Lord our Heavenly Father, Almighty and Everlaſting God, whoſe Glory the Heaven of Heavens cannot contain, look down from the Throne of thy Majeſty, and behold thy unworthy Servant proſtrate, at the Feet of thy Mercy, humbly confeſſing unto thee the Vanity and Sinfulneſs of my whole Life; eſpecially the Omiſſions and Commiſſions of my Duty this Day, wherewith I have ſo lately offended thine infinite Majeſty and Goodneſs, and ſo grievouſly wounded my own Soul: Of theſe and all other my Tranſgreſſions, I moſt earneſtly repent, and am heartily ſorry for theſe my Miſdoings; the Remembrance of them is grievous unto me, the Burthen of them is intolerable: Have Mercy upon me, moſt merciful Father, for thy Son Jeſus Chriſt's Sake, forgive me all that is paſt, and accept of theſe my Prayers and Supplications, through the Merits and Mediation of the ſame, our Mediator and Redeemer. And although I am unworthy, thro' my manifold Sins and Iniquities, to offer unto thee any Sacrifice of Praiſe and Thankſgiving, yet I beſeech thee to accept of this my bounden Duty, my unfeigned Thanks for all thy Goodneſs and Loving-kindneſs to me and all Mankind, purely proceeding

Here name particular Perſons.

Eſpecially thoſe for whom our Prayers are deſired.

Mind, relieve ſuch according to their ſeveral Neceſſities, giving them Patience under their Sufferings, and a happy Iſſue out of all their Afflictions. Subdue in me the evil Spirit of Wrath and Revenge, and diſpoſe my Heart patiently to bear Reproaches and Wrongs, and to be ready not only to forgive, but alſo to do Good for Evil, that all Men may know that I am Chriſt's Diſciple. And finally, O Lord, ſince thou hath ordained the Day to labour in, and the Night to take our Reſt, as I praiſe thee for the Mercies of the Day, ſo I humbly beg the Continuance of thy gracious Protection over me this Night. Let thy holy Angels pitch their Tents about my Bed, that being ſafely delivered from all Perils and Dangers of this Night, and comfortably refreſhed with moderate Sleep, I may be enabled to diſcharge the Duties of my Calling, and faithfully to perſevere in Holineſs and Pureneſs of Living all the Days of my Life, to thy Honour and Glory, through our only Mediator and Advocate, Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

1 OC 57

When you lie down in your Bed.

I Will lay me down in Peace and take my Reſt, for it's thou, Lord, only maketh me to dwell in Safety; and into thy Hands I recommend my Spirit, my Soul and Body, for thou haſt redeemed me, O Lord thou God of Truth.
